WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., Nov. 7, 1876.—10:30 a. m.—For the Middle Atlantic States, continued westerly winds, with warmer, partly cloudy weather and rising, followed by falling pressure.

PERSONAL.—Col. Wm. Kilgour, of this city, has been doing good service and winning gold opinions in New Jersey, as witness the following from the Rahway Democrat: "Washington Hall was again overflowed last evening by our citizens to hear Hon. Wm. Kilgour, of Virginia, (who is rightly termed the 'silver-tongued orator,') discuss the present political state of our country. The sentiment of his eloquent remarks throughout was for a restoration of the old Union as it was and a return to fraternal relations between all sections of our country, which, the experience of the past seven years had already shown, could not be done under so-called republican rule. Many of our most prominent citizens who, as a general thing, do not attend political meetings, were present and were pleased to applaud his sentiments with a will."

SOLDIERS FOR PETERSBURG.—All the soldiers who have been stationed at Fort Faquier, below this city, comprising one company of the 4th artillery, under command of Major Breckinridge, were embarked on board the steamer Keyport this morning en route to Petersburg, where they are to be used by Hambleton in his effort to defeat Col. Hinton. As the news of their departure became noised about the city much indignation was expressed at the employment of troops in a district in which there has never been any disturbance, and that, too, without any requisition from the Governor of Virginia, as is required by the Constitution.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—A man named Spitz, a hand on the canalboat Charles Clifton, of the American line, shot off the first joint of his right thumb yesterday, near Arlington, on the Alexandria canal. He had been a clock on the bank and running to the cabin window, caught hold of his gun by the muzzle and commenced pulling it towards him, when, the cock getting caught, it was discharged, tearing off his thumb, and carrying away the brim of his hat, close to his head.

SPIRIOUS ELECTION TICKETS.—Voters should be on the look out for spurious tickets, which have been prepared to deceive and defraud unwary conservatives. On some of these tickets the names of the electors are spelled wrong, and O'Neil's name is inserted where General Hunter's should be, while the vote for or against the amendment is left blank. Let the electors be carefully examined, and none but the regular straight ticket be voted by the conservers.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS.—The Fredericksburg Star says: "The Sir Knights of Fredericksburg Commandery, Knights Templars have been preparing for their pilgrimage to Alexandria. Fredericksburg Commandery exhibits a remarkable propensity in the Templar drill and full ranks will make a handsome display on the occasion of their visit abroad."

HOOK AND LADDER MEETING.—The Relief Hook and Ladder Company held its regular monthly meeting last night. Permission was granted to some of the members to decorate the truck house on the occasion of the Knights Templar parade, on the 15th and 16th inst. The active and two recruiting members were elected, after which the meeting adjourned.

PUNCTUALITY IS THE BINGE OF BUSINESS.—In summer there is never a case of bulb's cough, except when there is a case of croup, from school or business on account of coughs, or sore throat.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—F. A. Kerby, real estate agent and auctioneer, sold to day, for S. Ferguson Besel, commissioner, the old brewery building at the corner of Fayette and Commerce streets to U. M. Mouser for $950, and the lot adjoining the same on the west, to H. S. Barker for $60.

BUTTER THIEF.—A countryman came to market this morning having amongst other produce a lot of butter. While he was conveying a part of his produce from his wagon to a stand in the market, some adroit thief approached the wagon and stole therefrom about eleven pounds of butter, with which he escaped.

PEACEFUL OCCASION.—Mr. Louis Appel celebrated his forty-eighth birthday, last night, and entertained a large number of his friends at his residence on King street. During the evening the company were favored with some beautiful music on the guitar by Prof. Louis Mares.
